

NATIONAL DINING WITH DIABETES CURRICULUM USAGE AGREEMENT

Efforts undertaken by the National Extension Dining with Diabetes Working Group (NDWD) have resulted in the development of curriculum and evaluation for national use by Cooperative Extension. By partnering with NDWD to deliver the curriculum and evaluation, you are required to abide by the following terms:

1. Rights to the NDWD's Dining with Diabetes curriculum and evaluation cannot be transferred to another entity without written permission from NDWD.
2. The NDWD logo must remain on all publications and promotional materials provided. Co-branding with other logos is permitted.
3. The NDWD's Dining with Diabetes curriculum must be used for the sole purpose of providing education for adults at risk of type 2 diabetes, living with type 2 diabetes, pre-diabetes, other insulin-resistant conditions, or adults with other conditions that would benefit from this program, including those of family members and caregivers.
4. An Extension Educator/Agent will assume leadership for delivery of Dining with Diabetes, including forming and maintaining a coalition of health professionals, performing data collection and other assessment, and submitting assessment/ evaluation data. If a community partner assists the Extension Educator/Agent, the community partner and Extension Educator/Agent will agree upon who will take primary responsibility for the completion of these program components and related tasks. It is strongly encouraged that you partner with a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RD or RDN), Certified Diabetes Educator, or a Registered Nurse who is a diabetes educator when offering this program.
5. The Extension Educator/Agent will receive the curriculum and evaluation materials from NDWD.
